

Sergeant Tracy Moore Joins Safe to Learn Advisory Council

Tracy Moore, Sergeant, Washoe County School District Police Department has joined the Safe to Learn Advisory Council, "From the time when I was a child, I have always shown interest in emergencies. I can remember playing with my "hot wheels cars" and making a car crash scene. I would then dispatch the appropriate units needed to the scene. When I turned sixteen years old, I became a member of a volunteer fire department. From this point on in my life, I have been dedicated to my community and furthering my education in public safety."

Sergeant Moore currently serves as a Sergeant for the Washoe County School District Police Department. Sergeant Moore was the WCSD Emergency Manager for 5 years. In 2013 Sgt. Moore was the Exercise Director for the Urgent Solidarity full scale exercise for Washoe County. During his time as the Emergency Manager for the WCSD he implemented unified command for incidents that included a school shooting, wildland fire evacuations, viral outbreaks and regional flooding. His other experience is as a Deputy for the Washoe County Sheriff's Office (Training Officer, Hostage Negotiator, Fire Safety Officer) and a volunteer firefighter/chief for 20 years.

Sergeant Moore continues his mission on public safety in our schools by being a member of the Safe to Learn Advisory Council. Because of his training and experience, he brings valid knowledge and skills that are required to be successful in emergency responses, planning, mitigation and recovery.

Safe to Learn also features authors dedicated to school safety and the protection of our children. Their willingness to share personal lessons learned, have open discussions around difficult decisions allows us to learn from their lessons. Safe to Learn also features authors that inspire learning and literacy by sharing their skills with colorful stories of history; travel adventures; discovering the flavors of healthy cooking; as well as tales that may make you laugh or even cry.
